Bail to Be Furnished for Bauer and Knold, the Suspects.

The Strikers Have Encircled the Carnegie Works and Will Stop Recruits-Non-Union Men Arriving Very Slowly -Petition for Arbitration.

Pittsnungh, Aug. 2.-Mr. Frick passed a comfortable night; got out of his bed Monday morning, ate a hearty breakfast and no doubt will visit his office later in the week. It is said that no more bulletins of his condition will be issued by the attending surgeon.

The thirty-third street union mill of the Carnegie Steel Co., was in operation Monday morning with non-union men, guarded by Pittsburgh policemen. The new men were taken into the works under a guard at 6 o'clock in the morning.

The exact number of non-union workmen at the Thirty-third street mill is not yet known to Secretary Lovejoy. No petition for the appointment of an arbitration tribunal for settlement of the Homestead troubles has been filed in court, nor will there be until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Superintendent of Police O'Mara, District Attorney Burleigh, and Attorney Friedman, will arrange a satisfactory bail among themselves for the release of Bauer and Knold, the suspected ac-complices of Berkman, and will ask Judge Moore to accept it. Because of the absence from the city of Senior Counsel Dickie, no suits in the Iams case will be entered Monday. They are expected, however, Tuesday. More nonunion men were taken to Homestead, Monday morning on the steamer Tide. There were at least one hundred in the HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 1 .- The claim made by the Carnegie people that they would have 1,500 men at work Monday morning and start all the mills has not been made good. I went through the mills Monday morning. It is said that one-half of them are in operation on single turn. That is hardly possible, as it looks as though there are not more than 400 men working.

The company claims 960. Treasurer Curry said that in the 119-inch and 83inch mill they expect to put on the double turn Monday night. There is no prospect that they will be able to do that, especially in the 119-inch mill. Many of the men they have are new to their duties and it will take some time to break them in. Curry said when asked why the expected arrivals had not materialized Monday morning, that the men were coming too fast and agents had been notified to hold them off till accommodations could be provided for them.

A squad of 26 men arrived here Monday morning from Cincinnati, however,

Texas Lunatic Asylum Fire. Austin, Tex., Aug. 2.-During a terrific electric rain storm the state lunatic asylum here was struck by lightning, and the northwest wing set on fire. The water main from the city burst soon aster the fire started, and there being no water save that furnished by the bucket brigade, the fire soon got a strong hold on the building, and threatened to consume it, especially as very high winds prevailed. The flames, were, however, confined to the wing, and all the patients, some seventy-five females, were rescued. The fire was very fierce, flames leaping fifty feet high at times, and raged from 9 until 2 in the morning before being under con-

Gladstone Not Dangerously Ill.

LONDON, Aug. 2.-Mr. Gladstone passed a good night. Sir Andrew Clarke, his physician, called upon him at noon Monday. After his visit the physician was questioned by the representative of the Associated Press, to whom he stated that he was satisfied with the progress toward recovery made by Mr. Gladstone, but that the latter was not yet entirely rid of his cold and must spend at least another day in his bed room He is permitted, however, to receive those of his colleagues who call upon him on urgent business. Paris, Aug. 2.-Two closely packed drags collided Sunday on the way home from the Malsons Lafitte races. The horses became unmanageable, and threw the drags down an embankment into the gutter. All the occupants of the drags were thrown out, and two horses rolled down the embankment with them. Four men were killed and several men and women were severely injured.

Heavy Cotton Failure at New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.-Failure is announced of the well known cotton factorage firm of Bickham & Moore. No statement has been made as to assets and liabilities, but the firm's business was large. The house has always borne an excellent reputation, and the active partner, Mr. John V. Moore, is one of the best known and most popular men in the cotton trade.

Kidnaped by Union Men.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 2.—The entire non-union crew of the bark Richard the Third was kidnaped by union sailors at Nanaimo and made prisoners for several hours. Two of the leaders of the union sailors were arrested, tried and found guilty, and sentenced to fourteen there by the Triennial Conclave of the months' imprisonment each.

Carelessly Sets Fire to a Tank Containing Naptha.

A Terrific Explosion Follows and Forty People Are Burned,

Four of Them Fatally-The Flames Shot Upwards, it is Claimed, 400 Feet, and the Burning Fluid Was Thrown in Every Direction.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 2.-At 7 o'clock Monday night, while about 200 men were standing around the Big Four wreck at Cold Springs, some idiot smoking a pipe emptied the contents of the bowl into some debris which unfortunately had become saturated with naptha from one of the wrecked cars. Instantly there was a flash and a tongue of fire ran along the ground for a dis-tance of about fifty feet.

The men went to work at once to extinguish the blaze which slowly worked its way to the tank from which the naptha had leaked. The men were repeatedly cautioned to be careful, but as time passed they became indifferent. About half an hour clapsed when there was a terrific explosion of the naptha tank. A small stream of the oil not larger than a wheat straw had reached the blaze. The flame ran up the side of the iron end, and then with the thunder of the explosion there was a flash of light that illuminated the whole heavens for an instant.

One man, a few hundred feet away, said the blaze of light extended upward about 400 feet. The burning oil was thrown every way, and forty people were badly burned, four fatally. The four fatally burned arec Tom Harris, a quarry man, who, as he lay on a bed in one of the little houses in the locality, presented a sickening sight. He was a

Dr. J. M. Logan is a prominent and prosperous physician at the pleasant mining town of Kilgore, Carter county. He is withal an excellent citizen and a gentleman without guile. It happens that the Doctor has an interesting family, among its members a lovely and accomplished daughter, who fills the position of pharmacist in her father's daugstore. Thus she has aided the Doctor in accumulating a handsome competency, and for this reason numerous jealousies sprung These took on the form of slander. and it was not long until Miss Logan's reputation was attacked by some of the wretches. The slanders reached the Doctor's ears, and it was not long before he discovered one of the traducers. This one was promptly divested of his whiskers and treated to a spendid pummeling at the hands of the irate Doctor, while his pal" skipped the county. The action of the father is heartily indorsed, as indeed it would have been if he had adopted the genuine Kentucky plan of shooting the assailant of his daughter's character. Miss Logan is a lovely young lady, and it is because of her exceptional charms of person, mind and manner that she has evoked the envy and malice of those who are less fortunate.

Alabama Goes for Jones. BIRMINGHAM, Als., Aug. 2.-By the itest election returns it seems that the state is safe for Jones by something over fifteen thousand, but if the country precincts show up with the majorities Kolb expects, the result is very close. This is not impossible, but the probabilities are that the outside counties are largely one way or the other. The majorities will be almost a off. This county, the stand The Democracy of Mason county met in convention yesterday afternoon at the Courthouse for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Judicial Convention to be held at A. Birmingham giving him all but 440 of her votes and the miners voting that largest in the state, has gone Birmingham giving him all but 440 way pretty generally. But the farming precincts, where the alliance folks live, are showing up heavy for Kolb. But the state seems safe for Jones and the regular democracy by something over 20,000, the usual majority being over 60,000. The legislature is in very grave doubt and as Kolb will certainly contest the election, this is a serious point. Jones' majorities are lumped in the large counties, while Kolb's are
